

Academic Personnel Committee (Tenure and Promotion Committee)

The departmental Academic Personnel Committee shall consider all matters relating to faculty tenure and promotion and courtesy appointments. All tenured faculty members shall serve on the Committee. The Committee will elect its chair. All tenured faculty may review documents, discuss and vote on the question of tenure. Only faculty at the rank or a higher rank may vote on the question of advancement in rank, the only exception being a vote of full professors on the question of nomination for distinguished professor. Specifically, only full professors review documents, discuss and vote on nominees for full professor or for distinguished professor. The committee will act as described in the departmental guidelines for tenure and promotion. (Source: HEB Operating Code, approved April 23, 2007)
