Instructor:Dr. Cyntrice ThomasEmail:cthomas10@ufl.eduOffice:312 FLGPhone:352-294-1669Office Hours:Tuesdays and Thursdays 11:00am-1:00pm; by appointment

Course Objectives

This course is designed to introduce students to the legal structures, statutes, case law, and standards that establish legal responsibilities, rights, privileges, and controls related to the field of sport management. The objectives include:

- To introduce the student to the U.S. legal system
- To introduce the student to legal research
- To introduce the student to the role of law in sport and other physical activity programs
- To provide the student with opportunities to study specific standards, legislation, case law, governing bodies, and legal issues related to the sport industry
- To provide the student with opportunities to make presentations and conduct research on sport-law-related topics.

Required Textbook

Wolohan, J. and Cotten, D. (2017). Law for Recreation and Sport Managers, 6th Ed. Kendall Hunt Publishing: Dubuque, IA. ISBN: 978-1-4652-1054-8 Additional readings and cases will be provided by the instructor.

Course Policies

This course is primarily done in a combination of a lecture format and case study exercises that examine the application of relevant laws to issues in sports. Opinions held by other students should be respected in the discussion posts. Students are expected to watch the videos and complete readings and assignments for each module. Students are informed of the due dates for projects and assignment well in advance. Therefore, extensions will not be given for assignments and late assignments will not be accepted. Make-up quizzes will not be offered. Exceptions are excused absences consistent with the university policies (http://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/content.php?catoid=10&navoid=2020#attendance) and at the discretion of the instructor. Appropriate documentation is required. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements to make up assignments.

Course Grading

The final grade for this course is based on several categories of assignments each weighted differently and listed below.

Discussions

Because this is online course, we can't engage in traditional classroom discussions, so discussion questions are a way to provide a classroom experience online. Each student is required to make at least 3 posts for each discussion. An initial discussion post in response to the discussion question must be made by the Thursday in the first week of each module (exact dates will be provided). The remaining to discussion posts should be in response to other students' initial discussion post. Those responses should be substantive and provide additional analysis and/or raise additional questions. Each post should be between 150-200 words.

Case Briefs*

You will have four cases to briefs throughout the semester. During the first week of class, I will teach you how to brief a case. The purpose of the case briefs is to help students pull out the key components of a judicial decision and understand how courts interpret the law and arrive at their decisions. The due dates for each case brief are included on the schedule and are also listed below.

Brief #1: Allen v. Dover, 2002 N.H. Lexis 145 (2002) due Sunday, September 15th

Brief #2: Faragher v. City of Boca Raton, 524 U.S. 775 (1998) due Sunday, October 13th

Brief #3: Lyons Partnership v. Giannoulas, 179 F.3d 384 (5th Cir. 1999) due Sunday, November 10th

Brief #4: Clarett v. NFL, 369 F.3d 124 (2nd Cir. 2004) due Sunday, November 24th

Quizzes

In lieu of a final and midterm exam, timed quizzes will be given for each Module based on the assigned readings and lectures. The quizzes will consist of 10 questions. You will only have one opportunity to complete each quiz so make sure that your internet connection is stable and dependable. The lowest quiz grade will be excluded from your final grade calculation.

Short Paper

Students will be required to write a short papers (5 pages) based on research about a given topic covered in the course. Instructions to follow.

Final Paper*

As a part of this course you will be required to pick a topic in sport law to write a research paper on. In an effort to reduce the desire to procrastinate (and also to help provide guidance along the way), the final paper is broken up into three parts to be completed throughout the semester. Instructions for the final paper and each of its parts can be found on Canvas

Part I: Topic Submission, due Sunday, September 1st Part II: Case briefs of 3 cases relevant to your topic, due Sunday, October 13th Part III: Article summaries of 3 law review articles, due Sunday, October 27th Part IV: Paper Outline, due Sunday, November 24th Part V: Paper, due Wednesday, December 4th

*Briefs and other writing assignments should be submitted in Turnitin via Canvas, unless otherwise instructed. If a student is deemed to have plagiarized, he or she can be given a zero for the assignment and can also result in a report to the Student Conduct Committee. Please be sure to properly cite all sources directly quoted and paraphrased in each assignment using the APA style. Citation style guides can be found on the library's website. If you are unsure about how or whether to cite something, please ask the instructor for guidance.

Do not ask the instructor questions regarding your grade. Rounding up is completely under the discretion of the instructor. If you want to challenge an assignment grade, please come to the professor with evidence from the textbook or case material to justify your grade change request.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/)by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conducthonor-code/)specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Counseling and Wellness

Contact information for the Counseling and Wellness Center: http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx, 392-1575; and the University Police Department: 392-1111 or 9-1-1 for emergencies.

U Matter, We Care

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to,

Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
