Course Description

The course explores societal implications of sport in history and heritage, youth programs, collegiate, and professional situations, and the involvement of minority groups, women, business, and industry.

Purpose of the Course

Sport and Society is designed to acquaint the student with the principles and applications of social issues within the sport industry. The course will use sociological research and critical thinking to investigate the links between many of the major issues facing sports organizations today. Specifically, we will assess the intersection of race and sports, gender and sports, the treatment and behavior of athletes in sport, as well as the major social issues facing youth, college and professional sports in American society.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Think critically and articulate how sports impacts society as well as how society impacts sports
- Articulate and explain the major sociological issues associated with gender, social class, race, media and sports
- Describe the business of youth, college, and professional sports from a sociological perspective
- Describe how competition and the professional commercial model of sport have an impact on the youth and college sport system
- Gain an enlightened understanding of the relationship between society and sports
- Provide clear solutions that sport leaders can use to improve many issues challenging sports in contemporary society

Course Format

This course is an online course and all class sessions (including discussion sessions) will be delivered through E-Learning @ UF. The course is organized around five modules. Four progressive units make up each module as follows:

1. Videos and Readings
2. Canvas Discussion Boards or Yellowdig Board Forum
3. Module Quizzes
4. Module Discussion Questions Essays

Videos and Readings

Key concepts and issues for the topics in each module are presented through several videos and readings. The videos presented in each module include short lectures, short documentaries and news reports, or full-length documentary films. The video presentations will provide an overview of the most central ideas and debates associated with specific concepts covered in the readings of the module. The primary purpose of the video presentations is to set the stage for high order thinking of the materials and concepts presented through the course readings.

Discussion Boards

Discussion boards are used to weave key concepts presented in the videos and readings into an integrated whole to further develop an understanding of the phenomenon in sport. Each board will present questions and/or further information to consider and progress as a dialogue between small groups of students.

Module Quizzes

Quizzes covering the readings and the key concepts presented in the units will be given at the conclusion of Module 2 and the conclusion of Module 4. Each of the graded quizzes are timed (60 minutes) and consist of 24 questions each (T/F and multiple-choice formats). The quiz for Module 1 is not graded but is offered to allow students to assess the types of questions they will encounter in future module quizzes. This practice quiz will consist of just five questions and provide students an opportunity to experience the quiz environment in the class (i.e., the types of questions that they might encounter in future quizzes and the lockdown browser).

Module Discussion Questions Essays

Discussion questions for each module will ask students to submit a series of essays (graded for writing and content) on the topics covered throughout the module. Minimum word counts toward the writing requirement are assigned for each question to guide students when preparing their responses. *These papers are your submissions toward fulfilling the UF 6000 words requirement.

In summary, each module will include four tasks:

1. Read the assigned unit readings.
2. View the assigned unit videos.
3. View the unit Discussion Boards in Canvas and Post your responses and replies to other students.
4. Prepare and submit written responses to the unit Discussion Questions essays.
